

Table 1 Qualitatively assessed differences in access to health services and facilities between in-camp internally displaced persons (IDPs) and those hosted by local communities

Access to health care services and other facilities	In-camp IDPs	IDPs hosted by families
Access to health care services
Vaccinations	+++	++
Management of common illnesses	+++	++
Management of malnutrition	+++	+++
Vector control	+++	+
Reproductive health plus family planning services	+++	++
Care for severely malnourished children	+++	+++
Support to persons with disability	+++	++
Psychosocial support	+++	++
Prescribed medication	+++	+++
Ambulance services	+++	++
Emergency hospital services	+++	+++
Referral services	+++	++
Access to other facilities
Safe drinking-water in comfort	+++	++
Sanitary facilities of hygienic standard and comfort	+++	++
Food and feeding centres	+++	+++
Nutrition education through growth monitoring	+++	++
Affording more privacy when breastfeeding	++	+++

+ = poor, ++ = satisfactory, +++ = good, ++++ = excellent