

CORONAVIRUS DISEASE (COVID-19): protecting the vulnerable

Between 01 and 31 October 2020, with support of WHO:

141
health workers trained on surveillance, case management and risk communication

264
sample collection kits distributed to all federal member states

14 662
samples tested for COVID-19

211
samples transported and shipped from inaccessible areas

2
new health facilities added to the EWARN

3 300
facemasks distributed to all federal member states

997
sets of full PPEs distributed to federal member states

11 080
suspected cases investigated

462 445
households visited by the community health workers (CHWs) for case finding

2 350 693
people reached out by CHWs with risk communication messages

3 327
community health workers deployed for case finding and contact tracing

73
rapid response teams deployed for field investigation and sample collection

226
alerts of COVID-19 investigated

11
isolation centers supported for patient care

15
new risk communication messages developed and distributed

Our operational response to COVID-19 is supported by:

