

Tobacco control strategy planning guide: Strategy planning for tobacco control movement building

Contents

Introduction

Early strategy planning

A model strategy planning group

Outside facilitation

A closer look at planning group qualifications

Tobacco control advocacy experience

Allies outside the government

Doctors and medical societies

Health scientists and their professional societies

Economists and their professional societies

Lawyers

Voluntary health associations

Tobacco's victims

World Health
Organization

Regional Office for the Eastern Mediterranean

Youth advocates

Advocates for young people

Women's advocacy groups

Consumer advocacy organizations

Religious groups and leaders

Groups who work to control alcohol and illicit drugs

Environmental advocates

Labor unions

Groups concerned about globalizations

Human rights organizations

Groups who work for the rights of indigenous peoples

Business leaders

Pharmaceutical companies that sell smoking cessation products

Health insurance and life insurance companies

Other potential sources of funding

Policy-specific allies outside the government

Allies for tobacco tax increases

Allies for smoke-free workplaces

World Health
Organization

Regional Office for the Eastern Mediterranean

Allies for advertising bans

Allies inside the government

Inside advocates

Insiders

Recruiting the allies we need

What we want

Decision making authority

Influential messengers

Effective ways to deliver our messages

Organizing alliances

Networks and coalitions

Government and NGO collaboration

Movement leaders' roles

Essential categories of tobacco control leadership

A word of caution

Lessons in movement leadership

Fight

Flexibility

World Health
Organization

Regional Office for the Eastern Mediterranean

Opportunism

Appendix A: The Canadian Tobacco Control Coalition by Ken Kyle

Appendix B: Ten ways to kill a citizen movement by Byron Kennard

Acknowledgements

Regional Office for the Eastern Mediterranean

© World Health Organization 2006