

Smoke-free movies: From evidence to action

Contents

Introduction

Tobacco on screen: why this is a problem

Movies reach every corner of the world

Movies are effective in promoting smoking

Movies have largely escaped tobacco control scrutiny until now

Protecting young people from smoking in movies: policy options

Smoke-free movies and the WHO Framework Convention on Tobacco Control

Primary objective and core policy principles

Recommended measures

Strategies for older movies

Measures with potentially limited effect

Measures not recommended

World Health
Organization

Regional Office for the Eastern Mediterranean

Country responses

India

The United States experience

Actions at the sub-national level: Liverpool, United Kingdom

Conclusion

Lessons learned

Research priorities

Going forward

References

Annexes

Annex A. Movie smoking increases as other tobacco advertising is restricted

Annex B. Movies: showing on a screen near you

Annex C. Measuring overall adolescent exposures to tobacco imagery in movies

World Health
Organization

Regional Office for the Eastern Mediterranean